- Planning and Ideas

- Vent sessions: this semester is ... unorthodox, and with all of us now existing in a virtual universe, we've all lost the opportunity to chit-chat before and after class (if you had physical class in the first place!) What do people think about having an open option, once a month, for people to just get together and chat?
- If you have any ideas for a virtual event, please don't hesitate to get in touch!
  - NOTE: this was well-received ... semi-regular vent sessions will be organized and links will be sent out.
- For students new to online instruction, and anyone: if you want or need any tips, advice, resources regarding online learning, or just want someone to talk to outside your household, please don't hesitate to get in touch with us, via social media or email! We're all in this together (at home).
